

Farewell Lovely Nancy

Trad. Somerset, col. by Cecil Sharp

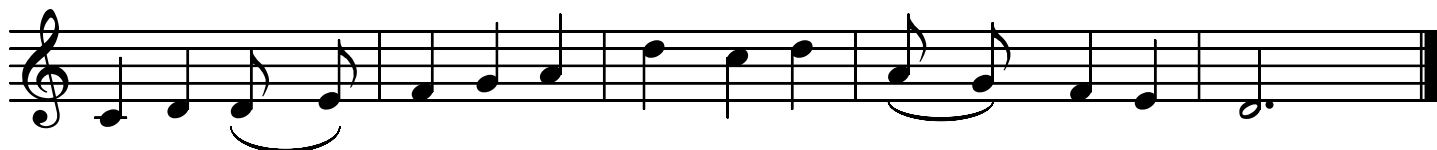

Fare well, my love-ly Nan - cy, for it's now I must Like some pret - ty lit - le sea boy, I will dress and go Well, your pret - ty lit - tle hands they can't - han - dle our So fare you well my love-ly Nan - cy, since it's now I must leave you, All on the salt seas I am bound for to with you In the deep - est of dan - ger, I will stand as your tack - le, And your dain - ty little feet on our top - mast can't leave you, All on the salt seas I am bound for to go; But let my long ab - sence be no trou - ble friend; In the cold stor - my wea - ther, when the winds are a - go; And the cold storm - y weather, love, you can't well en - go; But you must be safe, and be loy - al and to you, For I shall re - turn in the spring, as you know.

- blow-ing, My dear I'll be will - ing to wait up - on you then.
- dure, I would have you a - shore, when the raging winds do blow.
con-stant, For I shall re - turn in the spring, as you know.
