long years a-go since we left it, But re - turn there we will if we're spared. And our friends and com-pan-ions of child-hood Would a - ssem-ble each night near the store, And the mus-ic it would ring and sweet songs we would sing On a stone out-side Dan Mur-phy's door And those days in our hearts we will che-ish, Con - tent-ed al-though we were poor, And the songs that were sung in the days when we were young On a stone out-side Dan Mur-phy's door.
